

Cortland Repertory Theatre a brief history

In the winter of 1971, Dr. James Palmer, Associate Director of Theatre at SUNY Cortland, and David Yaman, a local real estate developer, recognized the community interest for theatre in Central New York. Through the generosity of 23 charter members, Cortland Repertory Theatre was born. The theatre opened on July 5, 1972 in the charming, turn-of-the-century Pavilion at Dwyer Memorial Park on Little York Lake and boasted a young, semi-professional company dedicated to bringing popular plays and musicals to theatre lovers in the area.

Over the years, CRT's annual budget has grown from $35,000 to over $408,000. The theatre has received invaluable support from local businesses and foundations as well as the NYS Council of the Arts and the Cortland County Legislature. Significant yearly donations come from local business and individuals. Through capital improvement grants sponsored by Senator James Seward and administered by the NYS Department of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation, CRT has installed dressing rooms, air-conditioning and most recently a sprinkler system and handicapped accessible elevator at the Pavilion. The CRT Board of Directors and Theatre Guild are comprised of community volunteers who devote countless hours to the innumerable activities that go on behind the scenes.

CRT originally began with an eight-week season in rotating repertory, which changed in 1982 to five plays running two weeks each. Currently, CRT offers six quality shows, a mixture of plays and musicals. Recent years saw the creation of the "CRT Kids" program which includes a children's show, educational theatre workshops, and "The Pavilion Awards" which recognizes outstanding achievement in local high school theatre.

Since its inception, CRT has always boasted a superb artistic and technical staff; a core of professionals augmented by talented local individuals. Over the years, the acting company has included several rising stars, the most prominent being Holly Hunter (1975 & 1976 seasons) who won the Best Actress Academy Award for The Piano. Two time Tony-award-winning actor/director Joe Mantello and nominee Stephen Borgardis have also graced the stage.

Throughout the years, CRT continues to stay true to its mission statement which is to "offer residents of Central New York quality professional theatre at an accessible price."

SHOWSTOPPERS AND SUPERSTARS

Musical Theatre Adventure Camp

- The purpose of Showstoppers and Superstars Music Theatre Adventure Camp is to provide a positive theatrical experience for your child's development.
- All sessions and rehearsals will be supervised by New York City Teaching Artists and may have assistance from performers from the CRT stage.
- A final presentation of the week's accomplishments will be presented on Saturday, July 28th and Aug 4th. The program is open to any K – 5th graders in the 2011-12 school year (in other words, they have completed a year in that grade).
- Proceeds go directly to the program to help defray the costs. Students are asked to bring their own snack.

DIRECTIONS TO HOMER CENTER FOR THE ARTS:

The Center for the Arts is located at 72 Main Street in Homer. Take Exit 12 off Route 81, and take the turn off to Homer (If you've reached the traffic light, you've gone too far). At the bottom of the ramp, take a left. (The Center for the Arts is a former church.) It is a large brick church, about a half a mile on the left, and has a large round, stained glass window in front.

Instructor

Tammy Holder has been an Arts Educator for the past 19 years. Most recently Tammy was the Resident Musical Director for TADA!, NYC's leading youth development theatre. While there, Tammy music directed all main stage productions as well as taught private voice and music theatre classes. Tammy continues to work for TADA! as a teaching artist in NYC public schools and composed an original bilingual musical for PS/IS 311 in NYC. Tammy has been a guest teaching artist, having done residencies for the Wake County Public School System in Raleigh, NC, Performing Arts for Children in Madison, WI, the Our Gang Players in New Jersey and the French Woods Festival for Performing Arts in upstate NY. Tammy is also an accomplished music director in NYC and beyond. CRT credits include They're Playing Our Song, You're a Good Man Charlie Brown, The Mikado, Man of La Mancha and last season's record-breaker Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

Program Content

Each day will focus on a specific element of musical theatre in a 20-30 minute small group intensive. During the week these elements will be applied at the end of the day in the rehearsal process. A theme for the week is selected and students learn songs from standard music theatre rep that support that theme. Songs are also choreographed and scenes are written by the students to convey the theme. Each week, the program will culminate with a presentation on Saturday, July 23rd and July 30th.
